KINSTON COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

History.

---

This Institution was first organised by the energetic labors and assiduous care of Eld. Joseph H. Foy. He, seeing that the people of this section needed another school besides the good one already here, with his rare gift of speech soon made it clear to them that all that was needed was simply action.

In September, 1876, the Kinston Collegiate Institute began its career. The number of pupils, at the opening of the first session, was thirty-six. At the close, more than a hundred names were upon the register.

Two years ago, after the removal of Mr. Foy to Wilson, the Institute was re-organized, with the present management. There has been a steady increase of patronage, till now, at the close of the second year of the present Principal's administration the number of registered names for session of 1878-79 is one hundred and twenty-eight.

Charter.

The Institute was chartered by the General Assembly at its session of 1876-'77. Therefore it enjoys the same privileges as those of any other literary institution in the State.

Location.

Kinston is the county seat of Lenoir county. It has a population of nearly two thousand. It has railroad communication, East and West, by the A. & N. C. R. R. It is at the head of steam navigation on Neuse River.

For more than twelve years it has enjoyed a degree of health unsurpassed by any section of the State. The physicians of the place will bear ample testimony to the truth of this assertion.

The Annual Session does not embrace the three warm summer months, June, July and August.

Religious Privileges.

Each student is allowed full liberty to attend divine worship at either of the churches in the town or country. Four denominations of Christians have worship every Sunday, vis.: Disciples, Episcopalians, Baptists and Methodists.

By common consent, no sectarian influence is exerted over the pupils.

PLAN OF INSTRUCTION.

---

Pupils are distributed, for convenience of instruction, among three departments.

---

Primary Department.

This is under the sole management of Mrs. Richard H. Lewis.

Pupils are taught the elementary principles of the English language, including Reading, Spelling, Writing, Primary Geography, Rudiments of Arithmetic and Elementary Grammar.

This department includes also those who have made sufficient progress to entitle them to enter the Junior English classes.

Text Books of Primary Department :—Holmes' Speller; Holmes' First, Second and Third Readers; Maury's First Lessons in Geography; Maury's "World we Live in;" Davies' Primary Arithmetic; Davies' Elements of Written Arithmetic; Clark's Brief Grammar; Appleton's Model Copy-Books.

Daily instruction is also given in the sounds of letters. Weekly oral instruction is given in elocution. Careful and unremitting attention is given to the habits and manners of the little members of this department.

Intermediate Department.

Elder C. W. HOWARD, Instructor.

Pupils who have passed a satisfactory examination on the studies of the Junior English classes, are advanced to this department.

The Text Books are :—Webster's School Dictionary; Holmes' Fourth and Fifth Readers; Appleton's Model

Copy-Books; Davies' Elementary Algebra; Davies' University Algebra; Davies' Geometry; Davies' University Arithmetic; Venable's Arithmetics; Maury's Manual of Geography. Besides the University Algebra and Geometry of the Collegiate Department, Elder Howard also has charge of classes in Wayland's Moral Science and Hedge's Logic.

Collegiate Department.

Dr. R. H. LEWIS, Instructor.

Pupils who have passed the examinations of the intermediate studies with those who select this grade are embraced in this department.

---

Text Books.

Greek—Kendrick's Greek Ollendorf; Greek Reader (Jacob's); Xenophon's Anabasis.

Latin—Bingham's Latin Grammar; Chase and Stuart's Cæsar, Virgil, and Cicero; Bingham's Latin Prose Composition.

French—Fasquelle's French Course.

English—Clark's Normal Grammar; Schmitz's Manual of Ancient History; Leighton's History of Rome; Loomis' Trigonometry; Maury's Manual of Physical Geography; Quackenbos' Rhetoric and Composition; Steele's Philosophy, and Chemistry; Bryant and Stratton's Book Keeping; Hudson's School Shakespeare; Barnes' Brief History of United States.

Department of Music.

MRS. ANNA L. DAVIS, Instructor.

This Institution recognizes the importance of Music in education, and is satisfied that no more thorough training in that Science can be found in any school of similar grade in the State.

Instruction is given on Piano and Organ to the regular class in this department. Every morning at opening of exercises and every afternoon at closing of the day's duties, the entire body of pupils in the chapel unite in the singing, to the accompaniment of the Organ.

Text Books :—J. F. Burrowes' Piano Forte Primer; Clark's New Method on the Organ; Duvernoy's Exercises; Hunten's Instruction Book.

REPORTS.

---

Monthly reports are made out and sent to parents and guardians, containing accurate statements of deportment and scholarship in each study.

An Annual Report is read at each commencement giving a resume of the year's work together with the names of all pupils who by their conduct and scholarship are deserving of "honorable mention."
